

CHAPEL ROYAL HAMPTON COURT

SERVICES FOR JANUARY and FEBRUARY 2019

WELCOME

WELCOME to Her Majesty's Chapel Royal, Hampton Court Palace for this service, and to a continuous tradition of worship that has been practised on this site for at least 800 years. This is one of the Queen's Chapels, and as such, not a parish church.

The original chapel was founded by the Knights Hospitaller long before Cardinal Wolsey began rebuilding it in 1528. The fine vaulted ceiling, dating from 1535, was the major addition by Henry VIII. Most of the chapel furnishings date from the late 17th and early 18th century and were designed by Sir Christopher Wren. The organ (although much altered and re-built) essentially dates back to 1711 and retains not only its fine case but much original pipework.

The Chapel Royal was not originally a building but a body of priests and singers that traditionally accompanied the monarch wherever he or she went. Only later did the buildings this body used become known by that name. Today, as well as Hampton Court, there are Chapels Royal at The Tower of London, The Queen's Chapel of the Savoy, and St James's Palace, which is the headquarters of the Chapel Royal. Services in all of Her Majesty's Chapels are based on those from the 1662 Book of Common Prayer, and you will have been handed an Order of Service with this booklet.

The Chapel Royal has an unrivalled continued tradition of choral music. Many of the greatest English composers have worked and composed pieces in and for this place, Tallis, Byrd, Gibbons, and Purcell among them. It is, therefore, wholly appropriate that worship is enhanced by music, which now may come from the English or European choral traditions. The texts are sung in their original language, usually English or Latin.

This booklet contains the details of that music, as well as the hymns and lessons for each choral service. These are correct at the time of publication. The hymns can found in the green New English Hymnal. In a tradition begun at the start of the Great War, we always end by singing the National Anthem, asking God to send his blessings upon the Queen.

Aurum et thus deferentes,

When Jesus our Lord

Felix Mendelssohn (1809-1847)

When Jesus, our Lord, was born in Bethlehem, in the land of Judea; Behold, from the east to the city of Jerusalem there came wise men, and said:

‘Say, where is He born, the King of Judea? for we have seen His star, and are come to adore Him.’

There shall a star from Jacob come forth, and a Sceptre from Israel rise up,
And dash in pieces Princes and Nations.

How brightly shines the morning star!
With sudden radiance from afar
With light and comfort glowing!
Thy Word, Jesus, inly feeds us,
Rightly leads us,
Life bestowing.
Praise, O praise such love o’erflowing.

All wisdom cometh from the Lord

Philip Moore (b. 1943)

All wisdom cometh from the Lord,
And is with Him for ever.

Who can number the sand of the sea
And the drops of rain
And the days of eternity?
Who can find out the height of heav'n,
And the breadth of the earth
And the deep and wisdom.

Wisdom hath been created before all things
And the understanding of prudence from everlasting.
The word of God most high is the foundation of wisdom,
And her ways are everlasting commandments.

To whom hath the root of wisdom been revealed?
Or who hath known her wise counsels?
There is one wise and greatly to be feared,
The Lord sitting upon his throne.

He created her, and saw her and number'd her,
And poured her out upon all his works.
She is with all flesh according to his gifts,
And he hath given her to them that love him.

The fear of the Lord is honour and glory and gladness,
And a crown of rejoicing.
The fear of the Lord maketh a merry heart
And bringeth joy and gladness and a long life.

Teach me O Lord the way of thy statutes:
And I shall keep it unto the end.
Give me understanding and I shall keep thy law;
Yea I shall keep it with my whole heart.

Make me to go in the way of thy commandments:
For therein is my desire.
O stablish thy word in thy servant:
That I may fear thee.

Behold my delight is in thy commandments:
O quicken me in thy righteousness.

The Three Kings

Jonathan Dove (b. 1959)

The first king was very young,
With doleful ballads on his tongue,
He came bearing a branch of myrrh
Than which no gall is bitterer,

*O balow, balow la lay
Gifts for a baby King, O.*

The second king was a man in prime,
The solemn priest of a solemn time,
With eyes downcast and rev'rent feet
He brought his incense sad and sweet,

The third king was very old,
Both his hands were full of gold,
Many a gaud and glittering toy,
Baubles brave for a baby boy.

God is light

Harry Bramma (b. 1936)

God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.
Thou also shalt light my candle : the Lord my God shall make my darkness to be light.

The Lord is my light and my salvation : whom then shall I fear?
The Lord is the strength of my life : of whom then shall I be afraid?
God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. Alleluia.

Lighten our darkness

Charles Villiers Stanford (1852-1924)

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord;

for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.
Amen.

Thomas Tomkins (1572-1656)

Death is swallowed up in victory.
O death, where is thy sting?
O grave, where is thy victory?

The sting of death is sin,
And the strength of sin is the law.
But thanks be unto God
Which hath given us the victory,
Through our Lord, Jesus Christ.

In the beginning, O Lord

Matthew Locke (1622-1677)

In the beginning, O Lord,
Thou didst found the earth, and the heav'ns are the works of thy hands.
They shall perish, but thou remainest,
And they shall all wax old as a garment,
and as a vesture thou shalt change them and they shall be changed.
But thou art the self-same,
And thy years shall not fail.

O praise God in his holiness

Andrew Millington (b. 1952)

O praise God in his holiness:
Praise him in the firmament of his pow'r.
Praise him in his noble acts:
Praises him according to his excellent greatness.

Praise him in the sound of the trumpet,
Praise him upon the lute and harp.
Praise him in the cymbals and dances:
Praise him upon the strings and pipe.

Praise him upon the well-tuned cymbals:
Praise him upon the loud cymbals.
Let ev'rything that hath breath:
Praise the Lord.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost.
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
World without end.
Amen.

Ben Ponniah (b. 1984)

In the hour of my distress,
When temptations me oppress,
And when I my sins confess,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me!

When I lie within my bed,
Sick in heart, and sick in head,
And with doubts discomfited,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me!

When the house doth sigh and weep,
And the world is drowned in sleep,
Yet mine eyes the watch do keep,
Sweet Spirit, comfort me!

Where thou reignest

Franz Schubert (1797-1828)

Where Thou reignest, King of Glory,
Throned in everlasting light,
In Thy courts no more is needed
Sun by day nor moon by night.

Soon may we those portals enter,
When this earthly strife is o'er,
There to reign with Saints and angels,
In Thy presence evermore.

Praise to God, th'eternal Father,
Praise to God, th'eternal Son,
Praise to God, th'eternal Spirit,
One in Three and Three in One.

Honour, praise, thanksgiving, blessing,
Now and evermore be done;
God most Holy, we adore Thee,
Ever blessed Trinity.
