

CHAPEL ROYAL HAMPTON COURT

SERVICES FOR JULY and AUGUST 2019

WELCOME

WELCOME to Her Majesty's Chapel Royal, Hampton Court Palace for this service, and to a continuous tradition of worship that has been practised on this site for at least 800 years. This is one of the Queen's Chapels, and as such, not a parish church.

The original chapel was founded by the Knights Hospitaller long before Cardinal Wolsey began rebuilding it in 1528. The fine vaulted ceiling, dating from 1535, was the major addition by Henry VIII. Most of the chapel furnishings date from the late 17th and early 18th century and were designed by Sir Christopher Wren. The organ (although much altered and re-built) essentially dates back to 1711 and retains not only its fine case but much original pipework.

The Chapel Royal was not originally a building but a body of priests and singers that traditionally accompanied the monarch wherever he or she went. Only later did the buildings this body used become known by that name. Today, as well as Hampton Court, there are Chapels Royal at The Tower of London, The Queen's Chapel of the Savoy, and St James's Palace, which is the headquarters of the Chapel Royal. Services in all of Her Majesty's Chapels are based on those from the 1662 Book of Common Prayer, and you will have been handed an Order of Service with this booklet.

The Chapel Royal has an unrivalled continued tradition of choral music. Many of the greatest English composers have worked and composed pieces in and for this place, Tallis, Byrd, Gibbons, and Purcell among them. It is, therefore, wholly appropriate that worship is enhanced by music, which now may come from the English or European choral traditions. The texts are sung in their original language, usually English or Latin.

This booklet contains the details of that music, as well as the hymns and lessons for each choral service. These are correct at the time of publication. The hymns can found in the green New English Hymnal. In a tradition begun at the start of the Great War, we always end by singing the National Anthem, asking God to send his blessings upon the Queen.

Let all mortal flesh keep silence

Edward Bairstow (1874-1946)

Let all mortal flesh keep silence
and stand with fear and trembling,
and lift itself above all earthly thought.

For the King of kings and Lord of lords, Christ our God, cometh forth to be our oblation
and to be giv'n for Food to the faithful.

Before him come the choirs of angels
with ev'ry principality and pow'r;
the Cherubim with many eyes, and wingèd Seraphim,
who veil their faces as they shout exultingly the hymn:

Alleluia.

Laudate Dominum

Marcel Dupré (1886-1971)

Laudate Dominum omnes gentes
Laudate eum omnes populi.
Quoniam confirmata est super nos misericordia ejus.
Et veritas Domini manet in aeternum.

*O praise the Lord, all ye nations: praise him, all ye people.
For his merciful kindness is great toward us: and the truth of the Lord endureth for ever. Praise ye the Lord.*

They that go down to the sea in ships

Herbert Sumsion (1899-1995)

They that go down to the sea in ships:
And occupy their business in great waters;
These men see the works of the Lord:
And his wonders in the deep.
For at his word the stormy wind ariseth:
Which lifteth up the waves thereof.
They are carried up to the heav'n,
And down again to the deep:
Their soul melteth away because of the trouble.
They reel to and fro
And stagger like a drunken man:
And are at their wits' end.
So when they cry unto the Lord in their trouble:
He deliv'reth them out of their distress.
For he maketh the storm to cease:
So that the waves thereof are still.
They are they glad because they are at rest:
And so he bringeth them unto the haven where they would be.

Give sentence with me, O God

Thomas Tomkins (1572-1656)

Give sentence with me, O God,
and defend my cause against the ungodly people:
O deliver me from the deceitful and wicked man.
For thou art the God of my strength; why dost thou cast me off:
And why go I so heavily while the enemy oppresseth me?
O send out thy light and thy truth, that they may lead me,
And bring me to thy holy hill, and to thy dwelling.
Then will I go to the altar of God,
Ev'n unto the God of my joy and gladness,
And upon the harp will I give thanks unto thee, O God, my God.
Why art thou cast down O my soul,
And why art thou so disquieted within me?
O put thy trust in God, for I will yet give him thanks,
Which is the health of my countenance and my God. Amen.

The Lamb has come for us

James MacMillan (b. 1959)

The Lamb has come for us from the House of David,
The priest and pontiff from Abraham.
He became for us both Lamb and pontiff,
Giving His Body for sacrifice, His Blood for sprinkling.
Blessed is His accomplishment

Mary carried Him as a child,
The priest carried Him as an offering.
The cross carried Him as one slain!
Heav'n carried Him as God!
Praise to His Father.

Whom have we, Lord, like you,
The Great One who became small, the wakeful who slept?
The pure one who was baptised, the living one who died,
The King who abased himself to ensure honour for all.
Blessed is your honour.

Vast Ocean of Light

Jonathan Dove (b. 1959)

Vast Ocean of Light, whose rays surround
The Universe, who know'st nor ebb, nor shore,
Who lend'st the Sun his sparkling drop, to store
With overflowing beams Heav'n, air, ground,
Whose depths, beneath the Centre, none can sound,
Whose heights 'bove Heav'n and thoughts so lofty soar,
Whose breadth no feet, no lines, no chains, no eyes survey,
Whose length no thoughts can reach, no worlds can bound.
What cloud can mask Thy face? Where can thy ray Find an eclipse? What night can hide eternal Day?

Ave verum corpus

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart (1756-1791)

Ave verum corpus,
natum de Maria Virgine:
vere passum, immolatum
in cruce pro homine,
cujus latus perforatum
fluxit aqua et sanguine:
esto nobis praegustatum
mortis in examine.

*Hail, true body,
born of the Virgin Mary:
who truly suffered, was sacrificed
on the cross for man,
whose pierced side
overflowed with water and blood:
be for us a foretaste
in the test of death.*

They will rise

Jonathan Dove (b. 1959)

But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength;
They will rise, they will soar, they will fly up on wings like eagles;
They will run and not grow weary;
March on and not feel faint.
